

i drive a truck across the country, most radio stations dont broadcast far enough to benefit from their traffic and weather reports, xm does. from a safty stand point, i'm not having to keep changing stations,i can keep my mind on the road and other traffic. if i pay for a service you shouldnt be able to tell me what i can and can't listen too. thanks larry